

KUTIJA AUTOMATA

DROPBOX SOFTWARE

Overview

- Login by RFID Card
- Login By Username & Pass
- User Information Details
- Return History
- Print
- Integration

Dashboard & Reporting

Database & Apps Library Management System

Database & Apps Library Management System

Dashbaord & Reporting

- Login by RFID Card
- Login By Username & Pass
- User Information Details
- Return History
- Print
- Integration

- Integration
- Print

Technical Specifications

- Able to read visitor's RFID
- Able to read RFID books
- Taking book return shoots for the Archives
- Interaction with touchscreen menu
- Data saved to database server
- Feedback in the form of announcements / messages from the Library
- Carry out the RFID Write process to the Book if it is borrowed/returned
- Data saved to database server
- Print receipts with customizable designs
- Sending a receipt to the borrower's email address
- Integrated with Other RFID systems in the Library"

Access Login By RFID Card

Login using an RFID Card, the system can be configured to read library membership cards that use an RFID card

Access Login By Username Password

If the user does not bring a user card, it is still possible to return the book by logging in using the username & password

User Information Details

After the user has successfully logged in and entered the system, the user can view detailed user information on the application

Return History

Viewing the history of returning your collection in this menu, the application can display data related to library collections that have been returned

Print Out

Print the proof of returning your collection, save the proof so it can be used at any time if needed

Integration

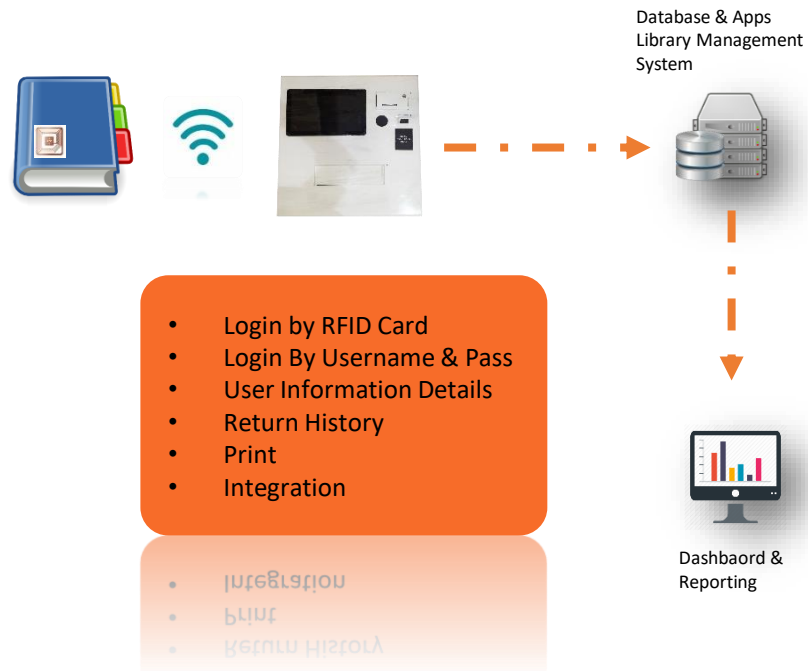

Integrate applications with the Library Management System using web service methods (JSON, XML).

New Book Collections

Displays information about the latest collections in the library and if you want detailed information, just click on the information

DROPBOX software

- Able to read visitor's RFID
- Able to read RFID books
- Records book return activity for the Archive
- Interaction with touchscreen menus
- Data saved to database server
- Feedback in the form of announcements/messages from the Library
- Carry out the RFID Write process to the Book if it is borrowed/returned
- Printing receipts with designs that can be customized
- Integrated with Other RFID systems in the Library

Access Login By RFID Card

Login using an RFID Card, the system can be configured to read library membership cards that use an RFID card

Access Login By Username Password

If the user does not bring a user card, it is still possible to return the book by logging in using the username & password

User Information Details

After the user has successfully logged in and entered the system, the user can view detailed user information on the application

Loan History

Viewing the history of loan your collection in this menu, the application can display data related to library collections that have been loaned

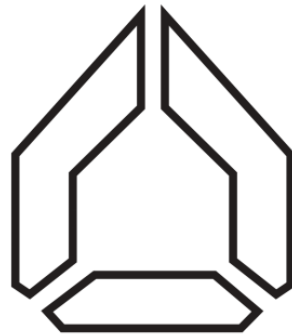

Print Out

Print the proof of returning your collection, save the proof so it can be used at any time if needed

Integration

Integrate applications with the Library Management System using web service methods (JSON, XML).

Innov Digi

65 Chulia Street, Level 46, Suite 3918,
OCBC Centre, Singapore 049513

marketing@innovdigi.com

+65 6670 6698